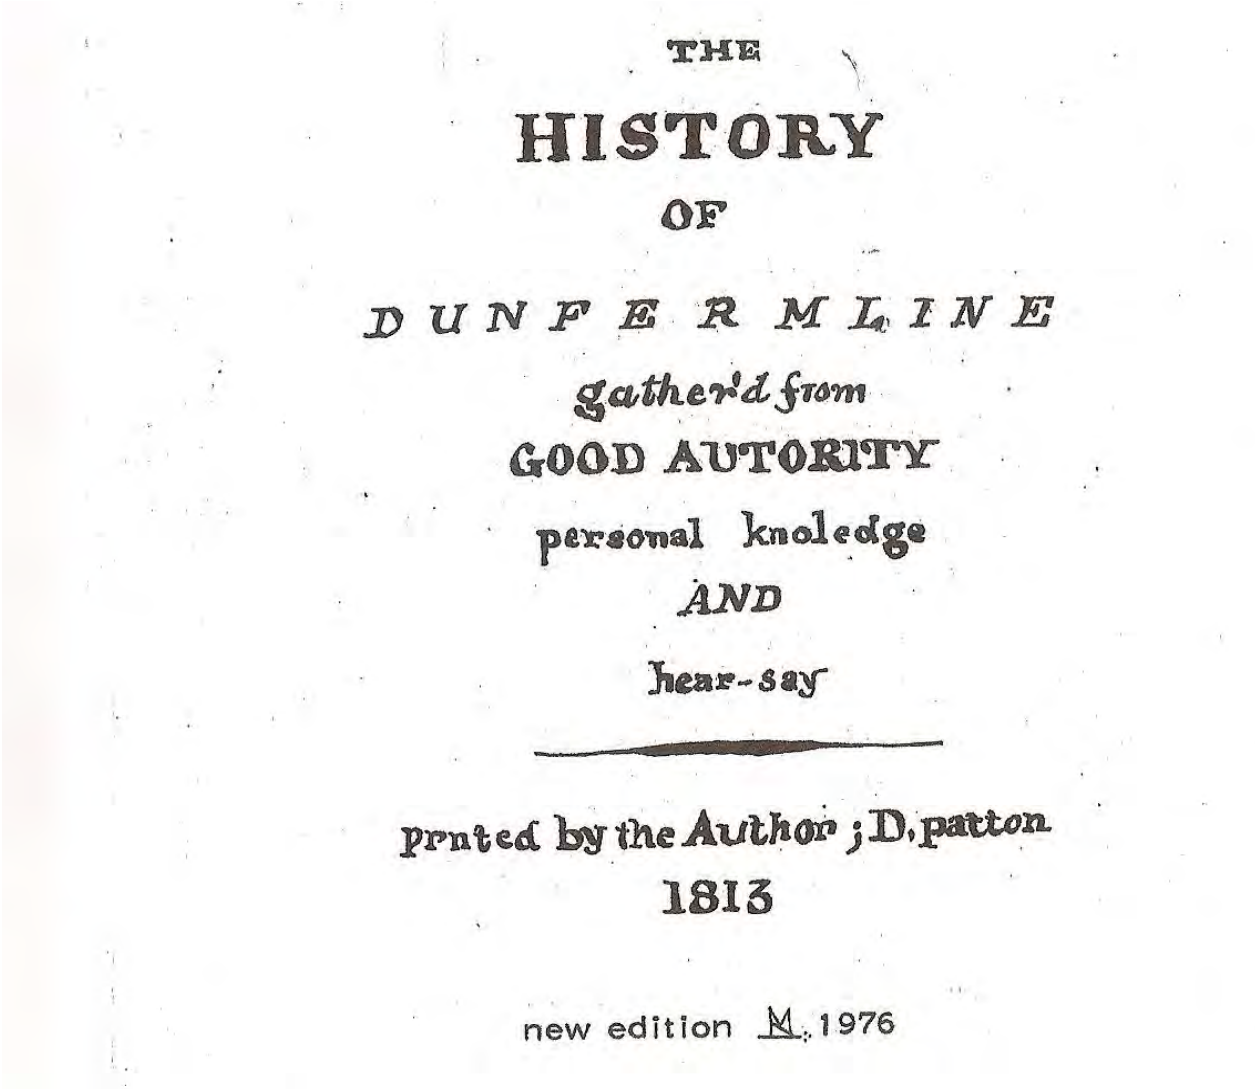
`O DUNFERMLINE TOON`

THE POETRY OF ROBERT GILFILLAN AND OTHER ARTISAN POETS

ORIGINAL TRADESMEN`S LIBRARY IN THE NETHERTOUN

DAVID PATON`S HISTORY



THE

HISTORY

OF

DUNFERMLINE

gather'd from

GOOD AUTORITY

personal knoledge

AND

hear-say

---

prnted by the Author ; D. patton 1813

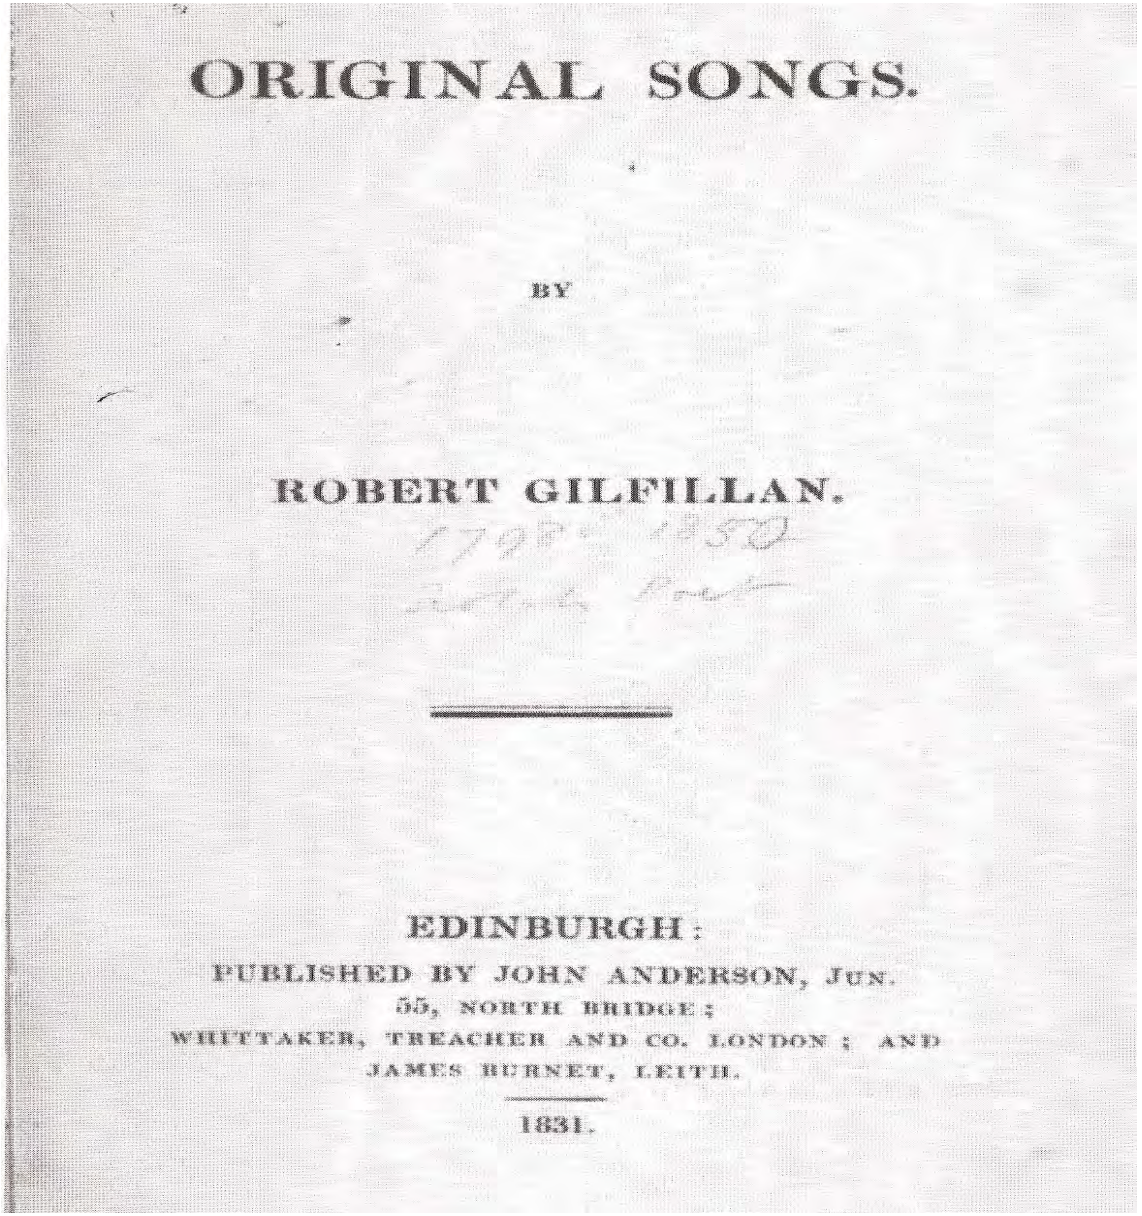
new edition M. 1976

DAVID PATON,TOWN HOUSE

PUBLICATION OF1831



ORIGINAL SONGS.

BY

ROBERT GILFILLAN.

1798-1850

EDINBURGH:

PUBLISHED BY JOHN ANDERSON, JUN.

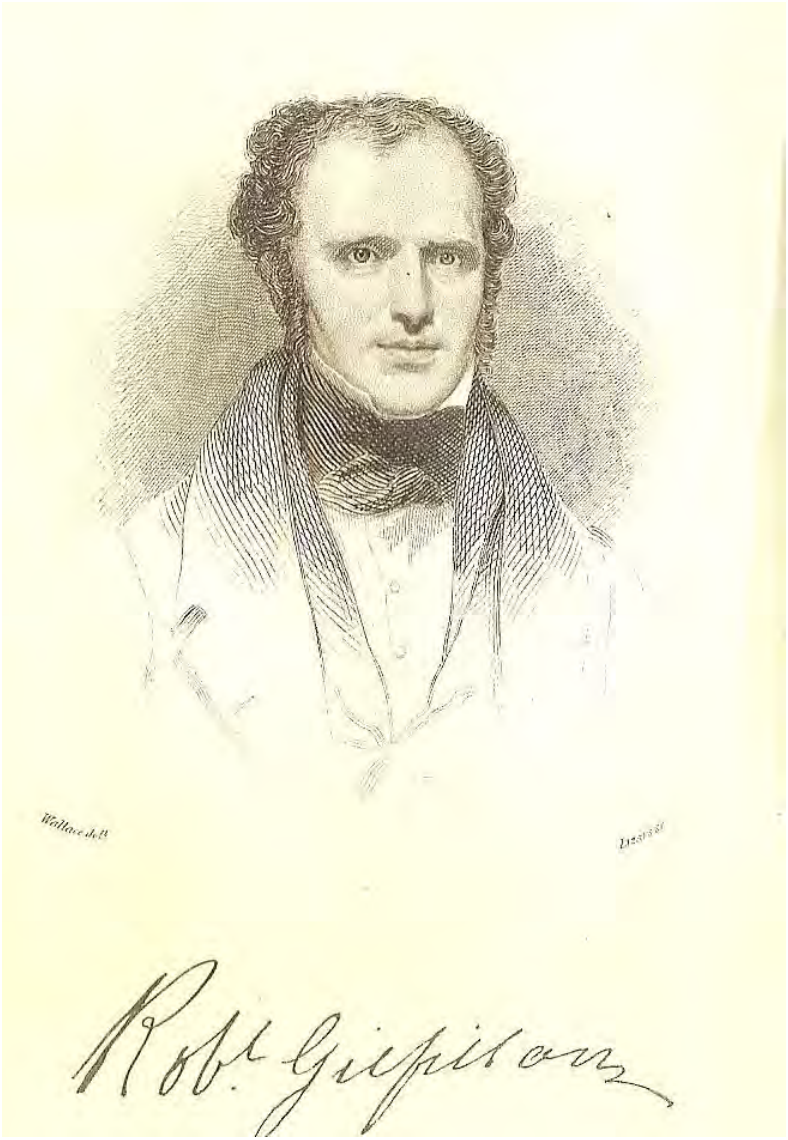
55, NORTH BRIDGE;

WHITTAKER, TREACHER AND CO. LONDON; AND

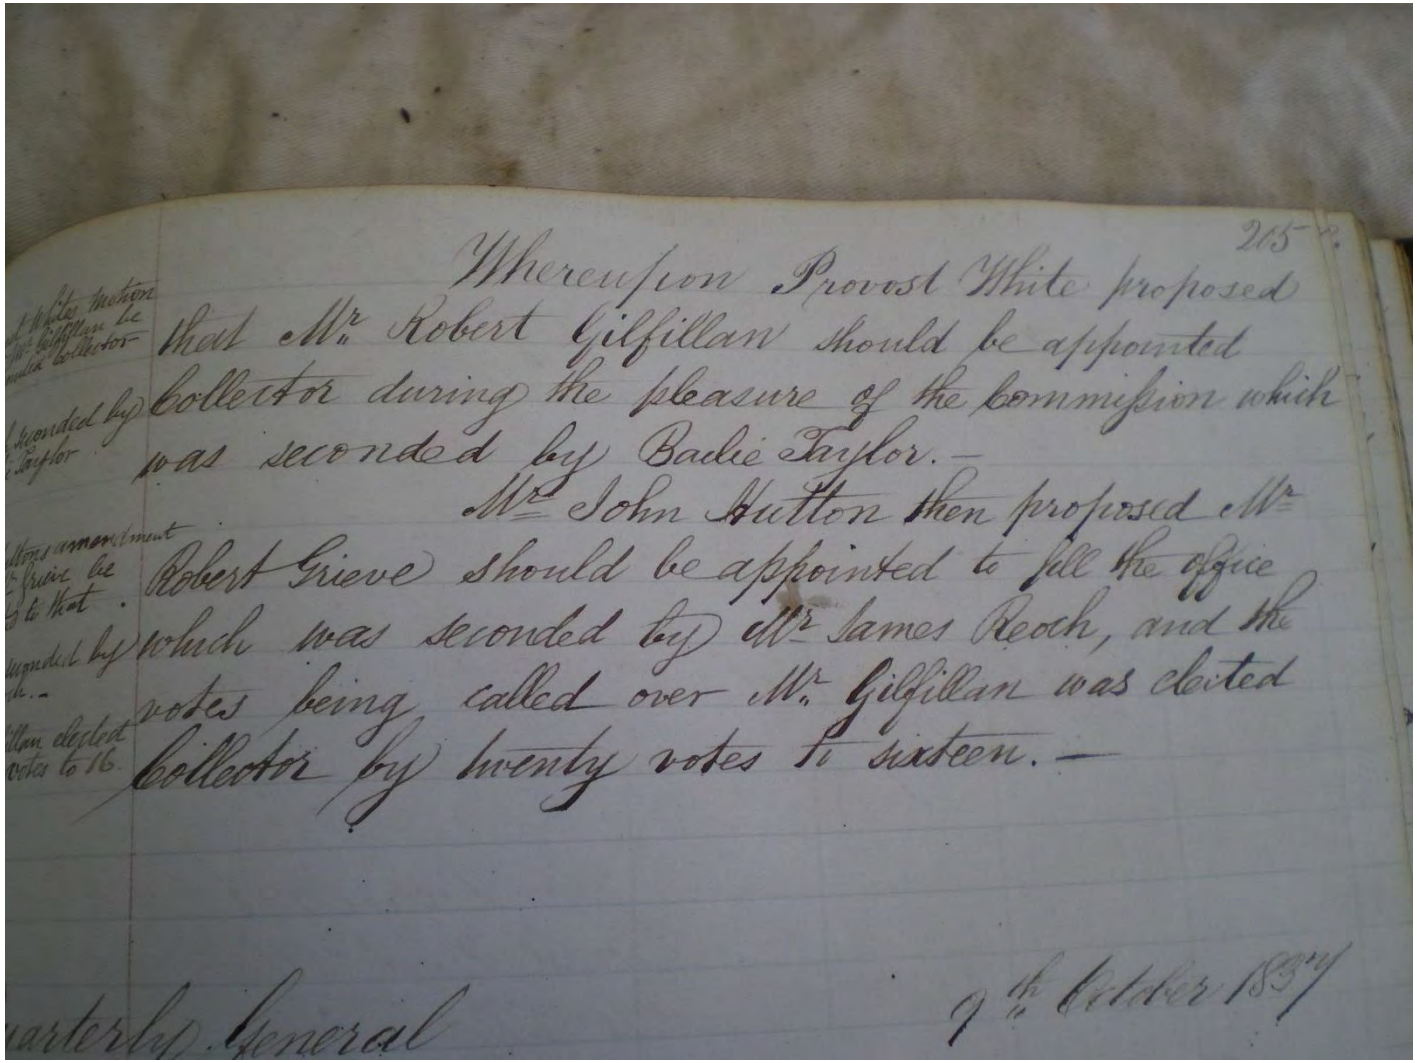
JAMES BURNET, LEITH.

1831.

ROBERT GILFILLAN, 1835



THE APPOINTMENT OF ROBERT GILFILLAN AS POLICE TAX COLLECTOR, LEITH,1837



215

Whereupon Provost White proposed that Mr Robert Gilfillan should be appointed Collector during the pleasure of the commission which was seconded by Bailie Taylor.—
Mr John Hutton then proposed Mr
Robert Grieve should be appointed to fill the office which was seconded by Mr James Reoch, and the votes being called over Mr Gilfillan was elected Collector by twenty votes to sixteen.—

Quarterly General

9th October 1837

65, CONSTITUTION STREET, LEITH

EAST HERMITAGE PLACE, LEITH LINKS

GRAVE OF ROBERT GILFILLAN

THE ABBEY KIRKYARD WALL

ALL WE HAVE AS A MEMORIAL TO ROBERT GILFILLAN